COAL STRIKE WILL END TUESDAY

Court Compels Cancellation of Strike Order and Union Leaders Will Obey, Whereupon Government Will Force Operators to Confer With Miners and Arbitrate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Cancellation of the strike order, which, since midnight of October 31, has kept four hundred thousand union bituminous miners out of the coal pits of the country, was ordered by Judge A. B. Anderson in the Federal District Court here today.

Violation of the war-time Federal food and fuel control act, as alleged by the Attorney-General's department was affirmed by the Court who said that the strike was not only illegal, but that under the circumstances it approached rebellion.

Unless the union leaders choose to defy the Court—and there was no indication tonight of any such intention—they can move only toward ending the walkout. The Court's order was so worded that failure to cancel the strike call or any affirmative word or action tending to "aid and abet" the continuance of the strike would be a violation of the injunction against strikers.

Tonight, therefore, the union leaders are under orders to meet here Monday, draw up a cancellation of the strike order, submit it for Judge Anderson's approval by 10 A. M. Tuesday and have notice of it on the way to all local and district unions by 6 P. M. that day. Telegrams summoning district presidents of the union and members of the executive board and the central competitive field scale committee to meet here Monday were dispatched a few hours after Judge Anderson's sweeping mandate had been issued.

Union officials here would not comment upon the court action.

CAPITAL AND LABOR ARE BOTH SCORED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Characterizing all strikes as "industrial barbarism" and declaring that "there is no place in this country either for industrial despotism or labor despotism," the Senate committee which investigated the steel strike today presented its report. The committee's main conclusion was expressed in the statement that "the public has a right to demand that capital shall not arrogate to itself the right to determine in its own way those industrial questions, and it is the same as to labor, and the duty is upon Congress to provide some way of adjusting these."

HOMEOPATHIC DOSES

Progress is never made by men or newspapers afraid. Gold bricks are put up in many different packages. Luxuries soon become necessities. Some fools have no money from which to be parted. He who laughs last is generally an Englishman. You can't judge a girl by what she marries. Tyranny as well as charity often begins at home. Looking for trouble continues to be a fruitful occupation. The girl who marries for a home pays to much rent. Some don't want your glad hand, but want your pocket-book. Sympathy don't prevent the under dog from getting whipped. Carrying Democracy to the world is too big a job. It can't be done.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS TO RECEIVE SCROLLS

"DEATH TRAP" FINDINGS CONFLICT

Committee Inclined to Exhonorate Railroad But Spectators Do Not—All Agree Crossing Is Dangerous and Must Be Remedied—Not Enough Room Between Freight Train.

Immediate action to prevent further accidents at the Twenty-third street crossing was asked of the Railroad Commission in a resolution presented yesterday by the Central Labor and Building Trades Councils.

The resolution recites that the crossing has earned the name of "Death Crossing" by reason of the number of fatalities that have occurred, and it asks that proper protection be provided for all grade crossings in Richmond, either by placing men at the crossings or by installing gates.

This resolution is signed by J. Sharpe, C. O. Whitlock and M. L. McNeill, and endorsed by the Contra Costa Building Trades Council through R. L. Goodwin and J. O. Dahl and by the Central Labor Council by W. Kramer and Jules Scarcellaux.

An investigation of the accident carried on by a board appointed by the railroad company exonerates the train crew. The report states that there were 110 feet between the ends of the broken freight train, that there was a free view of the track both ways in time to avoid the accident by the driver and that the automatic warning signal was sounding. The report admitted the train was going 45 miles an hour.

The fireman, it said, saw the automobile and signalled to the engineer to stop. This he did by applying the emergency brakes. The board report is signed by E. Entelman, assistant superintendent; D. A. Porter, division engineer; F. C. Klein, master mechanic; S. B. Kurtz, clothier and J. P. Strom, auto agent.

Opposing this is the testimony of a number who were present at the time the accident occurred, and they say there was not room enough between the freight train which had been cut in two and left at the crossing to enable anybody to see up and down the other track, on which the passenger train was coming, to any extent whatever commensurate with safety.

That the auto driver was reckless is quite probable, and that the cut sections of that freight train should have been much wider apart seems to be not only probable but a fact. These matters will likely all come out at the coroner's inquiry, soon to be held.

MICKIE SAYS

$6,000 TO BE RAISED BY LOCAL RED CROSS

Although no quota has been set for Richmond in the Red Cross Roll Call drive it is understood by those in charge that an effort will be made to collect at least $6,000.

Last night's reports showed $3874.50 already in hand, and but a few of the industries of the city had sent in their quota. Everyone is pledged to a 100 per cent membership, so that there is no doubt in the minds of the committee that the $6,000 will be exceeded.

The One Minute Girls appeared on the street yesterday afternoon, and seven of them collected $77 in an hour. They have decided to appear again on Tuesday if the amount set for collection has not been raised by that time.

Many reports are expected Monday morning, as the organizations of the city are keeping quiet until their entire quota is raised.

MRS. M. I. SWETT PASSES TO BEYOND

Mrs. Mary L. Swett, widow of the distinguished educator, John Swett of San Francisco, died yesterday at her home in Alhambra Valley in her eightieth year.

She was born in 1839 in Thompson, Connecticut and came with her parents to California by way of Panama in 1854, getting her education in the San Francisco public schools, where she taught for some years, finally marrying John Swett. Her father, Judge Frederick P. Tracy, was well-known on civil war times.

In 1884, Mrs. Swett, then a widow, moved to Alhambra Valley, where she has since lived, taking part in politics and strongly advocating suffrage for women. She was a Unitarian in belief.

She is survived by two sons, Frank T. and John F. Swett, one daughter, Helen S. Artleda, and three grandchildren, Ruth P. Aley, Margaret Swett and Elizabeth Swett.

Funeral services will be held at the John Swett home on Monday morning and at the Oakland Crematory chapel at three in the afternoon.

EAT-A DA BANAN

If you are looking for a good substitute for several foods that are scarce and high priced try bananas. They have as much food value as meat, are good cooked or raw, plentiful and cheap. There is no better food than bananas, and they are healthful and easily digested. Keep your feet warm, your head and temper cool, and eat bananas.

STORES TO CLOSE

WHEREAS, Armistice Day, Tuesday, November 11th, is to be fittingly observed by the people of Richmond with a grand parade and appropriate ceremonies, and WHEREAS the Merchants of Richmond desire to participate in the parade and give their employees the opportunity to do likewise, therefore be it

DAVID STARR JORDAN THE ORATOR

Armistice Day Celebration To Be Participated In By Every Organization In City—Impressive Ceremonies Followed By Sports and Amusements—Great Time.

With all organizations in the city signifying their intentions to participate in the Armistice Day celebration the committee anticipates an event that will eclipse all former efforts to honor those boys who "went West" in the great world war.

The ceremonies at the ball park which will immediately follow the parade will begin with an address by David Starr Jordan, a speaker of national-wide prominence, secured by the program committee.

Following the address a firing squad composed of sixteen members of the American Legion in uniform will form in double file abreast of a huge bank of flowers arranged by six Red Cross nurses as a tribute to the 21 Richmond men who died in service.

Rev. Paul Little, ex-chaplain in the United States Army, will deliver a eulogy and the firing squad will fire three volleys, following which the Gold Star schools' presented by the State of California Council of Defense will be presented to the kindfolds of the departed servicemen.

To close the ceremonies in honor of the dead the bugler will sound taps.

At one o'clock a program of sports and athletic events will begin. The program will begin promptly at one with a short band concert.

There will be a wrestling match and exhibition of jui jitsu and races for boys, girls, men and women.

At three o'clock the Richmond High School football team will play the Napa High school.

THE PROGRAM

The Program Committee of the Armistice Day Celebration composed of Rev. Little and Boyer and Judges Jacobs, Hall and Pearce report that Dr. David Starr Jordan, ex-President of Stanford University, will be the orator of the day on Tuesday. Dr. Jordan is a national character and the committee feels elated in securing his services. Following is the order of the program which will take place at the ball grounds at the conclusion of the parade at 11 o'clock:

Rev. Paul Little, chairman.
"America"—Marine Band.
Invocation—Rev. T. A. Boyer.
Male Quartette—Oakland Rotary Club.

Oration—Dr. David Starr Jordan. This will be followed with the military ceremonies in honor of those soldier boys who have paid the supreme sacrifice with the following order of service:

National Anthem—Marine Band.
Roll Call.
Gold Star distribution to the relatives of the boys who are deceased.
Brief address by Chaplain Paul Little.
Volley firing.
Taps.

STORES TO CLOSE

A SHORT SERMON

This being Sunday you should go to church and hear a sermon, but as you probably won't the News will hand you one anyway.

All the trouble, unrest and wrong-doing is your fault, my you we mean the national you, for the nation is but the individual in the aggregate. If each individual would set his own house in order, there would be no trouble whatever, yet because they do not do it the nation is now dangerously near to revolution and civil war. Think this over. Turn your eyes inward. Are you selling goods at more than a fair profit? Are you demanding a wage that is higher than a fair remuneration for what you give? Are you doing anything toward remedying those two kindred evils? Pray God this Sabbath day to help you to see and do right and to help others to do the same.

Amen.

EPISCOPALIANS TO GATHER MONDAY

Through the efforts of A. E. Emery of San Francisco a number of gifts, amounting to $3250 have been made to the Richmond Episcopal mission. This money will be used to liquidate the debt on the three lots that have been purchased by the congregation at Tenth and Barrett avenue, on which it is proposed to erect a building at an early date.

On Monday at 12:30 the clergy of the Oakland convocation will gather at luncheon at St. Francis' ball room in Point Richmond. A convocation will be held in the afternoon and a dinner will be served by the ladies at 6:30 to the men of the parish and their guests.

At 8 p. m. the ladies will assemble with the men and listen to talks by the visitors, among whom will be Coadjutor Bishop Parsons, Captain Victor Robertson of the Berkeley Defense Corps, C. C. Agnew, L.L.D., and Rev. Edgar Gee of Oakland, and Prof. Lincoln, head of the Church Divinity school of San Francisco.

ATHLETIC MEET FOR ARMISTICE DAY P. M.

A feature of the Armistice Day celebration will be an athletic show to be put on at the First street ball park Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The platform which will be used by the speakers and by the wrestlers and boxers is to be built Monday. Al Hall is in charge of the program.

At 3 o'clock the Richmond Union High school will play a football game against the Napa High school.

Election of officers of the Delphian Club will be postponed until December.

SHIPBUILDING PLANTS MAY RESUME

Plant Near Los Angeles Has Reopened — Negotiations Are Going On Here For Resumption of Bay Point and Other Yards—Leaders On Either Side Will Not Talk.

Coincident with the news yesterday of the reopening of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company's plant at San Pedro, it became known that within a few weeks the shipbuilding plants of the bay district, together with the outside machine shops and foundries, are also to resume active operations. They have been shut down since October 1 by the Pacific Coast shipyard strike.

Details of the plans by which the yards and shops are to reopen and the conditions under which men are to be offered employment were not obtainable yesterday.

The Southwestern plant has taken those who have applied for employment on the terms of the Macy award.

So far as could be ascertained yesterday, that forms the basis of the program which the San Francisco and bay district shipyards and foundries will present to the men.

R. N. Bunker, president of the Pacific Coast Shipbuilding Company at Bay Point, said that the business of the yard would not justify the raise which the men are asking and that the company was simply awaiting developments.

Since the shut down of the plants and shops on October 1, a large number of the army of men who went on strike at that time in the various industries have left this part of the state and have sought other employment.

It is understood that applications for re-employment have been made in considerable number, both to the shipyards and the outside shops, in this district.

The decision of the members of the California Metal Trades Association, including the shipyards, foundries, machine shops, gas engine works and the like, to reopen, is the outcome according to the best information obtainable of many conferences.

These have been under way ever since the strike. Incidentally there has been strong effort made through intermediaries to bring together the men on strike and the employers.

From the purely financial side, the existing shut down has meant to the Bay District a loss of $1,500,000 a week in payrolls. Approximately 48,000 men have been released from employment in this district by the strike.

These men were employed in

A LESSON FOR THE RICH

The business of armies and fleets is to kill and to maim, to capture so many of an adversary people, and to destroy so much of their property that they will submit to the will of the destroyers and killers.

All this is brutal work, and unless there is a spiritual and physical gain of liberty and of human rights and of human happiness that outweighs the suffering and the destruction wrought by war, then the war is a wicked and senseless thing, and stands condemned in advance at the judgment-bar of History.

And this that is true of the struggles on fields soaked with the blood that pours from men's torn and anguished bodies is just as true of those struggles in which the invisible battlefields are red with the blood and wet with the tears wrung from torn and anguished human souls.

Indeed, it is true that the sorrows and agonies and wounds of peace are as many and as bitter and as deep as those of war. And always there is this difference, that the woe and waste and wounds of war are the dreadful incidents, often of the highest and noblest sacrifice that men gladly make for their people and for the ages, while the sorrow and anguish and hopelessness and despair of those who are trampled under foot in the industrial and competitive battles of peace are the direct, foreseen, calculated results of sordid greed and mean and cruel avarice.

The President spoke for his people and declared to the world that we had taken arms for no selfish purposes, that America fought with clean hands and for the rights and for the uplifting of those who have been hewers of wood and drawers of water and bondsmen in the hands of their fathers.

We said Amen. Advance the standards!

But while our youth went out, like wise and careful merchants, to buy so wonderful and beautiful and so greatly-desired merchandise at such a price, we were determined that others should not coin the blood of those who so adventured and the toil of those who labored at home to sustain them in the field, into the mean and base profit, of cheating, swindling, oppressing and exploiting rogues and scoundrels.

What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? is a question that goes to the roots of a Nation's life as profoundly as it goes to the roots of your individual life.

It is the eternal question, not of the riddling Sphinx, but of 'the dreadful and the just Eumenides,' and be sure that they will have the answer, whether they make inquisition of you, that are one, or of a Nation, that is many.

He who looks upon the procession of the generations and reflects upon the long, sequent life of the Race of Man, pronounces that it has been good, that the feet of humankind have, with many stumblings, gone upward, and so he takes heart of fresh hope that Nations, as well as men, 'May rise on stepping-stones of their dead selves to higher things.'

But it is mournfully true that there have been Nations which did not rise; which died the death that knows no resurrection, and are as a tale that is forgotten, and vagrant dust blown about on the winds of vanished times.

And he who reads to reflect, to garner wisdom, to feed growing judgment with the bread of experience and comparison, observes that each of these Nations, the mighty and the valorous, as well as the weak and the timid, that have fallen out of the ranks of the moving companies of peoples, and the enduring and forward-going tribes and kindreds have all been the victims, not of the cruelties and tyrannies of War, but of the cruelties and tyrannies of Peace—the oppression of that chicanery which saps the vitality of those who toil in the fields and in the factories and the streets in order that the idle and useless and selfish may spend on a dinner the price of a stalled ox.

It will profit us nothing if we have waged war with valor, with fortitude, with clean heart and clean hands, if we now permit a villainous and base portion of our citizenry to exploit the patriotism of our soldiers and the toil of our industrial folk.

We have declared to all the world that we sought no profit, coveted no wealth, desired no people's lands.

Well and good. But neither these sentiments nor their most unselfish fulfillment have netted us any profit as a Nation if we permit profiteering by the base and unscrupulous.

When our young men died in battle we faced that sacrifice with hearts of manly and womanly courage, and thanked God that they were not recreant to the memories of their fathers, the traditions of the past and the dear flag to which they gave the last full measure of devotion.

But now they have fallen beneath the hail of war and battle, the fathers and mothers and the sisters and brothers they died to protect must not be exploited and sweated by cheating villains, making millions of profits out of the sufferings and perplexities and perils and necessities of their people.

THINKOGRAPHS

The right to make cider and light wine in the home remains. It looks very much to us as if liberty may yet squeeze through the narrow aperture thus left open.

RED CROSS GIVES FULL ACCOUNTING

War Council Tells How Millions Contributed by Public Were Used For Relief.

BIG TASK IS DESCRIBED

In Twenty Months $154,000,000 Was Spent Overseas and $119,000,000
In the United States.

Washington, (Special.)—Through a complete report of the work of the American Red Cross in the war by Chairman Henry P. Davison, on behalf of the war council, the organization on the eve of its annual enrollment of members during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, has rendered an accounting of the many millions given it by the American people to help our fighting men and our allies. The statement is, in part, as follows:

"The war council of the American Red Cross is now prepared to make a complete accounting to the American people of money contributed and expended, as well as the work done by the American Red Cross during the period in which the war council was in control of its affairs. The war council was appointed May 19, 1919, and went out of existence February 28, 1919.

"It was the practice of the war council to give complete publicity to its policies and finances, but it is only now that a picture of the war period as a whole can be presented. It is the feeling of the war council that a report in this summarized form should be made directly to the public which provided the money and gave the effort which made the American Red Cross a success.

"A statement of the American Red Cross effort and finances since the war council relinquished its control will be made to the public through the executive committee, and it is important, therefore, that the fact that this report covers the period only until March 1, should be carefully noted."

Following are certain round figures covering American Red Cross participation in the war, as revealed by the war council's report:

So Human ---it amazed all Richmond

SOME of your friends must have been in the huge audience which heard Ida Gardner in her Tone-Test recital at Lincoln Auditorium. Ask these people about it. This is the astonishing discovery they made:

The keenest musical ear can not distinguish any difference between the voice of the living artist and the RE-CREATION of that voice by the New Edison.

And does it not amaze you, too, that Mr. Edison has succeeded in producing an instrument that captures every subtle sweetness of the human voice—that gives you all the ear can give you of the art of the world's great artists. No other phonograph dares to make this direct comparison.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

IRICK DOGS AND SONGS AT RICHMOND TODAY

Seymour's Happy Family consisting of fifteen clever trick dogs, who appear to be able to do most anything that a dog could possibly be taught to do and then some. This act which is about the most pretentious canine offering in vaudeville, will be presented to the audience at the Richmond Theatre on the Sunday program.

Walter and Van Hatten have a pleasant rippling and jolly act, chuck full of wholesome comedy singing and talking. They have a way of their own in presenting this act and draw laughs galore.

May Thurman in just songs. Songs presented and sung with feeling and sympathy and rich, well rounded voice. Songs that touch and fill one.

The Eakies, "Those Jolly Entertainers" offer a program teeming with laughter and wonderment through the medium of a magic and mental telepathy. It is a distinctive and enjoyable novelty. The remarkable retentive memory of the young lady bewilder and amuses.

Bryant Washburn in "Poor Boob" and a Pathe News concludes the program.

RICHMOND PIONEER PASSES AT 87

Mrs. Anna Keleher took the only chance to save her life when she submitted to an operation at the hands of Dr. Cunningham for the removal of a tumor that was rapidly choking her to death. At her advanced age of 87 years and in her already weakened condition, by reason of her affliction, she was unable to rally and she died early yesterday morning.

Mrs. Keleher had been a resident of Richmond for the past thirteen years. She was the mother of Mrs. Mary Caulisse, Mrs. Monica Mahoney and Dan Keleher of New York. J. P. Keleher of Sutter county, Mrs. Nora Haley, Cornelius Keleher, Mrs. W. D. Bryant and Mrs. Albine Timoney of Richmond.

The funeral has been arranged for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from Our Lady of Mercy church at Point Richmond, interment to be in St. Joseph's cemetery at San Pablo. The Curry undertaking company has charge of the arrangements.

DIPLOMACY

Just because this paper is in the habit of telling the truth once in a while, lots of people seem to be very much surprised—maybe they ain't used to seeing the truth handled so recklessly. Why shouldn't anybody tell the truth? Not diplomatic? Well, the only difference between a diplomat and a liar is—er, well—darned if we know what the difference is, but it isn't much.

OUR POLICE CHIEF

No, dar, anxious read, the Richmond where the young lady was arrested by the chief of police for appearing on the street in a silk skirt was not Richmond, California, but Richmond, Virginia. Our chief of police here is not that kind of a chief of police. He is the other kind. His heart is big and he loves the ladies, skirt or no skirt.

difficulties." As a permanent preventive of strikes, which the committee concedes "are apparently the only way for labor to secure even its just demands if employers refuse to grant them," it is recommended that Congress authorize the establishment of some such mediation agency, with well-defined powers, as the recently dissolved war labor board.

The organizers are T. J. Conboy of the Steel Workers Union and Dominick Gelotte of the United Mine Workers. Both were requested last night by the committee to leave the city immediately, after William Z. ## THIS SHOULD BE PENITENTIARY OFFENSE

Over half the milk produced by thirty-nine dairies near Holt and Tracy, in San Joaquin county, is being deliberately thrown away—poured into the sewer every day for no other purpose than to keep up prices to the consumer!

From 2500 to 3000 gallons of good lactical food, in these days of murderous milk prices, are running to waste—enough to feed over 10,000 of those poor children that are now going on short milk rations because their parents cannot afford to pay 18 cents a quart by the pint or 15 cents a quart by the quart.—S. F. Bulletin.

MOTHER ADVISES MARY WHERE TO SLEEP

"It's all very well, Mary, for you to be head over heels in love with George, but as your mother, I am warning you that love is not everything in life, particularly when the cost of home upkeep is what it is today.

"Don't spill your coffee in your hurry to see if the postman is bringing you a letter. Just sit awhile and let's talk over the matter of the furnishing of that house of yours. Let's look over the new sheet blankets for $2.23. My word, I never thought to see such prices again.

"Come on. Let's leave the dishes and go right down and get all the blankets you need. And comforters, too. We'll get Luck Cupons, too, with every purchase. Maybe you can win one of these grand prizes and use it to buy something else for your house.

"Jones always tells the truth about his goods. He'll have a big crowd there today. Let's hurry."

DOCTOR WISHES HE HAD LOCATED IN RICHMOND

Dr. Smith, formerly of Stockton, but now practicing in San Bernardino, was a recent visitor in Richmond. In an interview the doctor said he had had occasion to visit in different cities throughout the State, Modesto, San Jose, Fresno, and many similar places and found none of the stores as fully equipped as the Richmond stores.

It was the doctor's first visit to Richmond and he was agreeably surprised to find that all the stories told him of our city being a backwoods town were false and had his knowledge come at an earlier date he would undoubtedly have located in Richmond.
